

Racial Disparities in Incarceration

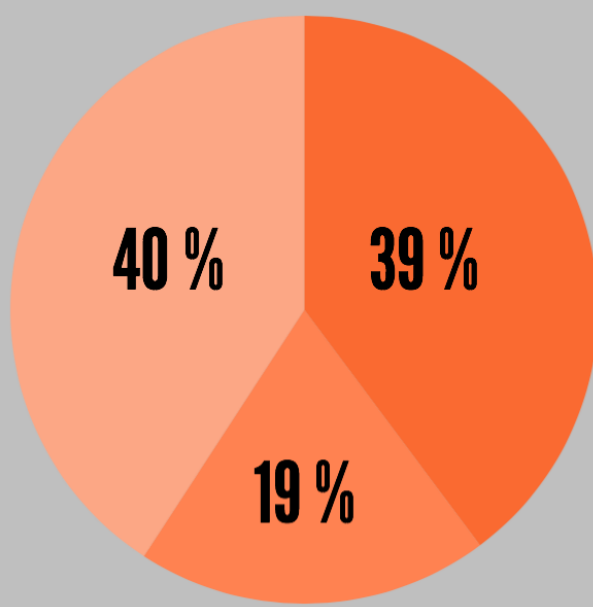

Racial minorities are more likely to be arrested, convicted and sentenced than white males. While the U.S. is responsible for imprisoning 22 % of the population, 60 % of those prisoners are minorities.

U.S. Population

Out of approximately 320 million

U.S. Prison Population

Out of approximately 2.2 million

White Hispanic Black

1 in every 3 black males will be incarcerated

1 in every 6 Hispanic males will be incarcerated

1 in every 17 white males will be incarcerated

Black males are 6 x more likely to be arrested than white males and 2.5 x more likely to be arrested than Hispanic males

Does this look like JUSTICE?

Visit colorofchange.org to join the fight against racial injustice and to change the COLOR of democracy